Why Called "Automobile" Skates

Automobile SKATES

OUNCES LIGHTER & STRONGER

Because the Blades are made from the special Chrome Nickel Steel perfected for use in those parts of High-grade automobiles where strength and lightness must be combined.

The Blades are tempered hard as glass on the outside, and take a very keen edge, but they are not brittle. By a special process, the hardening extends inward for only a certain depth. This leaves a soft, tough "core" which renders the blade practically unbreakable.

"Mr. Smythe is great at leading people to the light," as he puts it, smiled the woman, wiping the pumpkin seeds off her hands against the side of the pan. "He's converted me to true Christianity. He learnt me that hymn, 'Cross the River of Jordan, that I've just sung."

"Well, well," grinned Big Mac. "And I've given smoking, too," confessed the widow. "It's been awful hard to do it, but Mr. Smythe says it's wrong for people, specially women, to smoke. I haven't had a smoke for several days, Daniel."

"God bless us," murmured McTavish, "as that so."

He picked up a sliver and broke it into small bits.

"You get quite a lot of comfort out of tobacco, I suppose?"

"No one knows how much," she sighed.

"Well, missus, maybe I'm wrong," declared McTavish, "but I tell you what I think. I don't believe I'd care to give up anything I had, and was sure of, for a chance of getting what a man like Smythe gave me his word I'd get in exchange."

He laughed, and strode away across the cornfield. Widow Ross followed him with staring eyes.

"I wonder just what he means," she muttered. "My, but I wish I could have a little smoke right now."

CHAPTER XVII. The Logging-Bees.

Logging-bees are not uncommon events among the Bushwhackers. But usually logging-bees were held after the winter snows had fallen, when with oxen and sleds the men moved the great logs to where they were wanted.

But, as Mrs. Declute explained it, this was "a sorter unusual logging"; it was "more of a 'log-in' than a logging," "all of which was quite true. Mrs. Declute had set her mind upon having a new cow-stable erected, one that would be tight and warm, "with no chinks to let in death to the poor dumb critters." And, a first adverse to the idea, had reluctantly given in to having a bee, and bee it was to be.

Thursday morning dawned clear and bright, and with it came all the Bushwhackers, big and little in Bushwhackers' Place.

Buck and Bright, the champion ox-team, bedecked with a new yoke of white elm in honor of the occasion, were driven forth to the contest by their proud master, who cracked his whip in time to the cattle of the long chains, and commanded, "gee there, Bucky, haw, Bright," in a voice that Mrs. Ross declared could be heard "quite plain on the Point." Pelter, with his span of oxen, was already on the ground, and by the time he and Big McTavish had got through chaffing each other on the respective deficiencies of each other's team, three more span with their owners had arrived on the scene.

An hour later all throughout the nearby wood could be heard the "clack-clack" of axes, and every now and again a great tree would fall with a crash and a crash that seemed to jar the earth.

While the young men chopped down and trimmed the trees, the older ones laid out the foundation of the new building. So thoroughly was this done that Declute avowed in the hearing of his good wife, who naturally was close at hand to admonish and advise the architects, that he wouldn't be surprised but that he'd desert the house and live in the new cow-stable himself. Whereupon that good woman flashed a look of scorn upon him, and jeeringly remarked: "A cow-stable is too good for a man what allars smells of 'rat-musk an' can't take a skunk out'n a trap without scentin' up th' whole neighborhood." The little man hid his discomfort by suggesting that the men who claimed their team could haul two tons of green timber "at a wallop" come along and prove it. Laughing, the men sought their patient cattle and proceeded with a chorus of "gees" and "haws" to haul the trimmed tree-trunks up to the clearing.

It was a great trial of strength and patience and endurance on the part of both team and driver, the hauling of those heavy logs across rough ground to the wide square marked off in the clearing. The young men left off trimming trees to watch the oxen pull. There was much excitement while the rival teams pitted their muscles against one another. The spans were very evenly matched, and it is likely the friendly contest would have ended in a draw had not a circumstance arisen to put McTavish's Buck and Bright away to the fore.

A great heavy log had moved itself deep into a bank of moss, where, held securely by root-tendrils, it refused to budge to the repeated tugs of Pelter's red oxen. Two other teams tried to break it out without success, and then Big McTavish, smiling broadly, declared that he would show them what a real span of oxen could do when they wanted to. Sure enough, Buck and Bright, after tremendous exertion, did break the log out, and lowering their broad, burly heads, and snorting and puffing, hauled the timber up to the clearing. Pelter declared that McTavish had been "feedin' up for this tug-of-war for a month," and Big Mac retorted that he had "been starvin' the poor oxen for weeks just so's they wouldn't beat the other spans too soon."

Oh, they were a happy crowd, these young boys and old boys, happy in the hauling up, the mortising of the timber, and the laying "true" of the first logs for the building. They one and all forgot, for the time being, that new merchandise which had crept among them and stayed, and worked them up to disquietude. The bush-world was theirs still, and it was a very beautiful world with its autumn scenes and sounds and colors. A high, clear, though rather topsy-turvy, yellow-gold of the sky; of the tree-tops the old-gold of late fall; on the forest aisles an amber-gold commingled with the green moss that glowed through the yellow leaf-carpet.

By noon the mortised logs had been gathered into a great pile, ready to be thrown up into a roomy building, and the men went in to dinner. Dinner was usually a hurried meal, supper being the main "feedin' event," as Paisley termed it.

There were twenty-three men at the logging; Jim Pelter with his two sons, almost men grown; Big McTavish with his "body guard," as the six Indians present from Point Aux Pins were called; Alex. Lapiere, a French trapper from Indian Creek, and his two swarthy sons; Injun Noah; four men from Brice's town; Boy McTavish; and the Broadcreek family. The Broadcreeks were not popular. In fact, they were not liked any too well by their honest bush-neighbors. They bore evil reputations, and they were a sullen, ill-conditioned lot. But on account of their size, and from the fact that peace amounted to something, they were always invited to an affair of this kind. Broadcreek, senior, was a talk lean, white-haired old man, with hawk-like eyes and hatchet face. He was sure, and quarrelsome, and he never at all inclined to do anything much save scoff at the efforts of others. Three of his strapping sons were present with him, and the old man leeringly assured Declute that Amos, the fourth and worst of the gang, would be "along in time for supper."

"It's to be hoped he won't bring hisself 'ere," gitting here," returned that gentleman, "howsoever, he'll be welcome."

The captains having chosen their men, the word was given, and the boys attacked the pile of logs with cant-hook and hand-spike. "He-o-heave!" roared the captains, and in an incredibly short space of time the cow-stable began to grow and take on the shape of a building. By three o'clock in the afternoon the four sides of the building were nearly laid, and now began the finish for first laurels. The side that was first able to lay its upper plates and rafters would win the day. Men ran nimbly along the slippery logs shouting orders and handing long, slender pipe-poles below.

"Now, lads, up with her, all together. He-o-heave!" rang the cry, and the boys responded with a will. It was a close race, and excitement ran high.

All the ladies of Bushwhackers' Place had gathered outside to witness the finish. Mrs. Declute had her hands full admonishing the little Declutes to keep from under the great plates that were being raised. Mrs. Ross and several other women kept clapping their hands and cheering the workers on.

Gloss McTavish and Mary Ann Ross stood some distance apart from the older women, and more than one of those sweating, striving workers threw a glance in the direction of the two girls.

"Our side is goin' to win, after all," laughed Gloss, clapping her hands. "Oh, look, Mary Ann, do look at Boy running along that slippery plate. It makes me shudder."

And look at Bill Paisley liftin' that heavy log," returned her friend. "My, but he must be strong. Gloss!"

"You young ladies are taking a personal interest in the raising, I see," Simpson, the teacher, had come up in time to hear the remarks of the girls, and his face, in spite of the sunlit wear, showed anything but pleasure.

"I bet my pupils go at three o'clock," explained the man. "I wanted to see what a Bushwhackers' bee was like."

"Better look more and talk less then," coaxed Mary Ann, turning her back on him. She moved slowly away, and Simpson spoke in low tones to Gloss.

"Did you think I would come?" His voice was not quite steady and he awayed slightly as he spoke. A look of abhorrence swept across the girl's face and her big gray eyes were anxious as she answered:

"I wasn't givin' any thought to you at all, Mr. Simpson."

"But you will," he almost threatened; "you must, Gloss. Do you suppose I would come here among these people, if it weren't just to catch a glimpse of you?"

"Please go away," she pleaded.

"No, I'm going to stay by you."

"Then I will go."

Use Your Local Newspaper

Manitoba Free Press Urges Retailers To Advertise In District Papers.

Trade marked and nationally advertised goods have solved a good half of the shopper's problems. Time is saved in the selection of articles, which can be decided upon without even a trip to the store. The certainty of getting quality goods at prices identical with those prevailing all over the continent is still another advantage. And, in spite of the somewhat general conviction to the contrary, national advertising lowers the cost of the goods to the consumer and keeps it lower. The briefest survey of price increases in recent years will prove beyond question that packaged, trade-marked and nationally advertised goods have not advanced in anything like the same proportion as bulk products.

Not only consumers, but many retailers, are by no means convinced of these truths; and in order to familiarize the merchants of Western Canada with the advantages of carrying and pushing the sale of nationally advertised products the Winnipeg Free Press has commenced publication of a Retail Merchants' Monthly. It is a new departure in Western journalism, and although published in the interest of one newspaper its policy is broad enough to embrace the general welfare of the press of Western Canada.

An editorial in the November issue, headed, "Use Your District Newspaper," says a part:

The large advertisers are rapidly coming to the conclusion that huge sums spent on national advertising are largely wasted unless the message reaching the consumer is linked up with some store where the product can be bought. The extent to which this is being realized can be gathered from the newly announced sales policy of the Sherwin-Williams Company. Fully fifty per cent. of their appropriation for sales promotion (including advertising) will be devoted this year to localized "tie-up" helps which appeal to the dealer and enable him to identify his store locally as the Sherwin-Williams agency.

The Sherwin-Williams Company place special emphasis on local newspaper advertising, providing electrics in which the dealer's name can be inserted, and suggesting the most effective dates for running the advertisements, so as to tie up with the national campaign.

In Western Canada there are several hundred local newspapers whose influence in their particular districts cannot be approached by mediums of any other kind. Neither the larger dailies nor the national weekly monthly magazines can vie with them for reader interest in their immediate neighborhood. Many dealers do not realize this. They rely upon national advertising conducted by the firms whose agencies they handle to pull business to their stores, forgetting that in order to secure the utmost results from that advertising, which costs them nothing, they must not only establish their store in the public mind as the authorized agency for those products, but also should give local stimulus to the general appeal. This can only be done effectively by local advertising in their district newspapers. Display of the goods in store windows or on store shelves is the last contact that can be made with the purchaser before the sale is made. It imparts the final impulse in a long chain of suggestion impelling the consumer to purchase a certain brand of goods.

Time is Nothing in Spain

Exact Hour Does Not Mean Anything to Average Citizen.

Foreign visitors, after a short stay in Madrid, begin to doubt whether the Spaniards are able to tell the time. There are scores of public clocks in Government buildings and on church towers and nearly every Spaniard carries a watch, which he often looks at, but apparently these do not mean anything to the average citizen. An appointment for a fixed time and place nearly always finds both parties absent at the hour named. Trains rarely start and never arrive at the scheduled hour, and there are other indications of the little interest Spaniards show in the time. It is either morning, noon, evening or night with Spaniards generally, and of course the eternal nanana which never comes. The exact hour is nothing to them.

Decrease in Employment.

Dominion headquarters of the employment service of the department of labor reports that for the week ending Oct. 23rd, employment reports were tabulated from 5,230 forms with an aggregate pay roll of 731,950 persons. At the end of the previous week, these firms had 739,304 employees, and at the middle of January they had 689,915 persons in their employ. As compared with the end of the preceding week there had been a decrease in staffs of about one per cent. and as compared with the middle of January there was a net increase of over six per cent. Further reductions in the number of employees were anticipated by the employers.

Bad Breath?

Don't Be Offensive
Remove the Cause

Follow This Advice and Your Breath Will Soon be Sweet and Pure.

The bad part of Bad Breath is the fact that nearly every case shows considerable trouble from indigestion, belching gas, bloating, piles or some form of stomach misery. Often than not a pimply face, a sluggish constipated condition is the true cause of many a man's failure in life.

By aiding digestion and building up the weak muscles of the stomach and bowels, DR. HAMILTON'S PILLS completely overcome constipation and all forms of stomach illness.

"I was terribly run down with stomach trouble, that was through neglected constipation," writes Mrs. P. D. Ouellette from Wasburn, P.O. I simply couldn't half digest my food. I had headache, dizziness, piles and yellow muddy skin. The effect of DR. HAMILTON'S PILLS was phenomenal. I have gained weight, have a clear skin, no more headaches, I eat well, sleep well and enjoy my meals.

There is no need to be in failing health when cure is so sure, so easy, by taking Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut, 25c per box, at all dealers. REFUSE A SUBSTITUTE.

A Definition of Bolshevism

Distinguished Socialist Tells the World What Soviet Rule Means.

The most deadly and inveterate opponents of Bolshevism are Socialist writers, who realize that the practical results of the colossal failure of Lenin and Trotsky must be to set back the Socialist cause for decades; since the world at large, not given to make distinctions, will not distinguish between the communism of Moscow and the Socialism of the intellectuals. It is John Spargo, a distinguished Socialist, who gives this bitter, telling definition of Bolshevism: "Promising plenty it gives only famine; promising freedom, it gives only fetters; promising love it gives only hate; promising order it gives only chaos; promising righteous and just government it gives only corrupt despotism; promising fraternity it gives only fratricide."—Winnipeg Free Press.

The Prima Donna.

Amongst musicians a story is told of the meeting at a musical party of Jenny Lind in her retirement, when she had become Mme. Goldschmidt, and the rising cantatrice Adeline Patti. After Patti had sung most brilliantly, Mme. Goldschmidt, approached her, and after generous praise of her performance, added a few words of gentle criticism of some point. "You will not mind my telling you this, my dear," she concluded, "when I tell you that I am Jenny Lind."

"Oh, yes," said the spoiled prima donna, tossing her head. "I've heard my grandmother speak of you!"—Manchester Guardian.

The Empty Chair.

"There is an empty chair. It remains there empty. Never has it been removed. We have sat, eight of us, in the Council meetings of the League. There has always been this ninth chair waiting for its occupant. That chair is America, and I would not allow it to be placed against the wall. The chair is silent, but it is here. One day, we trust, it will speak. We are like a family which has lost a son. But the chair is ready against his return, and we listen for the lifting of the latch, and his entry into the fold." Thus spoke Mr. Leon Bourgeois in the course of an interview with a representative of The Christian Science Monitor, in Paris, a few days ago. And Leon Bourgeois, if he had had his way, would have had a League of Nations just twenty years ago.

Customs Reaches Far North.

A Canadian customs' station is to be established at Burwell, in the Hudson Straits. Previously, there has been practically no check on vessels going into the Hudson's Bay and northern coast territories to trade, but now all vessels will be required to pass customs at Port Burwell. The customs officials will be materially assisted by members of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police patrol.

Double Beauty

OF YOUR HAIR

"Danderine" creates mass of thick, gleamy waves

In a few moments you can transform your plain, dull, flat hair. You can have it abundant, soft, glossy and full of life. Just get at any drug or toilet counter a small bottle of "Danderine" for a few cents. Then moisten a soft cloth with the "Danderine" and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. Instantly, yes, immediately, you have doubled the beauty of your hair. It will be a mass, so soft, lustrous and easy to do up. All dust, dirt and excessive oil is removed.

Let Danderine put more life, color, vigor, and brightness in your hair. This stimulating tonic will freshen your scalp, check dandruff and falling hair and help your hair to grow long, thick, strong and beautiful.

Making Trees Grow

How One Woman Transformed Town in Wyoming.

This year Freedom Wyoming, is enjoying the novelty of trees along its streets and on its lawns because one woman had vision enough to see trees there and determination enough to get them planted. Freedom is situated in the treeless part of Wyoming. It had no trees, and no one seemed to regard it as possible to have any. Finally, one woman wrote to the state agricultural college for advice and learned that the blue spruce would do well in that region and that the forestry division would furnish transplants for five cents apiece. Starting with a goal of 250 trees, she kept on until she had succeeded in getting 4160 planted by the interested residents. Now the whole country is planting blue spruces. That is real public spirit.—Youth's Companion.

War and Crime

Evidence Shows That Increase in Crime Follows War.

There is an interesting theory that a great war is always followed by an increase in crime. Life in the field, with its hideous sights and grim duties, is supposed to breed in a certain small portion of the combatants a contempt for human life, and when demobilization takes place there is a period of lawless violence. It must be admitted that there is a certain amount of evidence in favor of this theory. In Great Britain there has been an almost unparalleled series of murders during the last year or so, and many observers are disposed to think that something in the nature of a crime "wave" is sweeping over Australia.—Melbourne Argus.

Asbestos From Quebec.

Canada at the present time leads the world in asbestos production, and the place which the province of Ontario occupies in the world as a source of supply of nickel is closely approximated by Quebec in the matter of asbestos. Today Quebec's deposits of asbestos are estimated to supply between 85 and 90 per cent. of the world's consumption.

Dog-Teaming to Northern Oil Fields.

Tony Neis, a well-known and experienced trader and explorer in the north, will be the first adventurer to get under way for a winter trip to the Mackenzie River oil fields. He has three big dog-teams ready. The fact that Ford Norman is a long way off and will mean hard travelling has not discouraged Mr. Neis in his plans for an overland journey this winter, for from past experience he knows exactly what is ahead of him.

The large advertisers are rapidly coming to the conclusion that huge sums spent on national advertising are largely wasted unless the message reaching the consumer is linked up with some store where the product can be bought. The extent to which this is being realized can be gathered from the newly announced sales policy of the Sherwin-Williams Company. Fully fifty per cent. of their appropriation for sales promotion (including advertising) will be devoted this year to localized "tie-up" helps which appeal to the dealer and enable him to identify his store locally as the Sherwin-Williams agency.

The Sherwin-Williams Company place special emphasis on local newspaper advertising, providing electrics in which the dealer's name can be inserted, and suggesting the most effective dates for running the advertisements, so as to tie up with the national campaign.

In Western Canada there are several hundred local newspapers whose influence in their particular districts cannot be approached by mediums of any other kind. Neither the larger dailies nor the national weekly monthly magazines can vie with them for reader interest in their immediate neighborhood. Many dealers do not realize this. They rely upon national advertising conducted by the firms whose agencies they handle to pull business to their stores, forgetting that in order to secure the utmost results from that advertising, which costs them nothing, they must not only establish their store in the public mind as the authorized agency for those products, but also should give local stimulus to the general appeal. This can only be done effectively by local advertising in their district newspapers. Display of the goods in store windows or on store shelves is the last contact that can be made with the purchaser before the sale is made. It imparts the final impulse in a long chain of suggestion impelling the consumer to purchase a certain brand of goods.

Time is Nothing in Spain

Exact Hour Does Not Mean Anything to Average Citizen.

Foreign visitors, after a short stay in Madrid, begin to doubt whether the Spaniards are able to tell the time. There are scores of public clocks in Government buildings and on church towers and nearly every Spaniard carries a watch, which he often looks at, but apparently these do not mean anything to the average citizen. An appointment for a fixed time and place nearly always finds both parties absent at the hour named. Trains rarely start and never arrive at the scheduled hour, and there are other indications of the little interest Spaniards show in the time. It is either morning, noon, evening or night with Spaniards generally, and of course the eternal nanana which never comes. The exact hour is nothing to them.

Decrease in Employment.

Dominion headquarters of the employment service of the department of labor reports that for the week ending Oct. 23rd, employment reports were tabulated from 5,230 forms with an aggregate pay roll of 731,950 persons. At the end of the previous week, these firms had 739,304 employees, and at the middle of January they had 689,915 persons in their employ. As compared with the end of the preceding week there had been a decrease in staffs of about one per cent. and as compared with the middle of January there was a net increase of over six per cent. Further reductions in the number of employees were anticipated by the employers.

Manitoba Free Press Urges Retailers To Advertise In District Papers.

Trade marked and nationally advertised goods have solved a good half of the shopper's problems. Time is saved in the selection of articles, which can be decided upon without even a trip to the store. The certainty of getting quality goods at prices identical with those prevailing all over the continent is still another advantage. And, in spite of the somewhat general conviction to the contrary, national advertising lowers the cost of the goods to the consumer and keeps it lower. The briefest survey of price increases in recent years will prove beyond question that packaged, trade-marked and nationally advertised goods have not advanced in anything like the same proportion as bulk products.

Not only consumers, but many retailers, are by no means convinced of these truths; and in order to familiarize the merchants of Western Canada with the advantages of carrying and pushing the sale of nationally advertised products the Winnipeg Free Press has commenced publication of a Retail Merchants' Monthly. It is a new departure in Western journalism, and although published in the interest of one newspaper its policy is broad enough to embrace the general welfare of the press of Western Canada.

An editorial in the November issue, headed, "Use Your District Newspaper," says a part:

LEEDALE NEWS

Certain visitor from Leedale has been asked to publish "A Social Calendar" and as it is useful to have a calendar turning forward and backward, ours will suffice well as it provides for the Past, present and future and dates from Oct. 29 1920.

"When Thelma Chailand celebrated her tenth Birthday with a little party of ten boys and girls from her school. The youngsters were entertained from 3 to 6 p.m. with music, games, contests. At 5 p.m. the doors of the play room opened and brought to view a beautifully decorated table, with "room for plenty and all they could eat." of fruits, candies, nuts and different kinds of cakes. The scheme of decorating was very tastefully carried out and followed closely after the Halloween-type. Black cats perched around the birthday cake which was of snowy white from the centre of which blazed ten candles. The souvenirs which were placed at each plate, were suspended from the ceiling by yellow ribbon. Children departed, all reporting a good time, and Miss Thelma received many beautiful presents.

Oct. 30—At the Leedale school house the teacher entertained the patrons by a continuous round of contests furnished by the children, many prizes were given. Children were well masked to suit the occasion. Several other notable persons were there: 'The Widow and Orphan' 'The Witch' 'The Old Mother Goose', and the 'Black Cats', 'The Owls' 'The Indians of Earlier Days' and last but not least of all 'The madame Fortune Teller'. Refreshments were served and those present enjoyed a good Halloween with little mischief done.

Oct. 31—Church at the Regular Hour—Attendance as usual.

Nov. 2—Mail as per contract. Due in Leedale at 1 p.m. on Tuesday—Thursday and Saturday, due to leave at 2:30 p.m. same day.

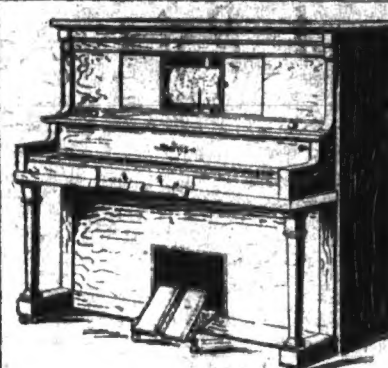

Nov. 6—Miss Barr teacher of the Gimlet school entertained the community with a concert given by her pupils which was a huge success. This was followed by a dance; 35 couples in attendance. A well known dancer from near Lacombe was present and favored the audience with all the late Scotch dances. Mr. Burns rendered the Irish Jigs with credit. Music by home Orchestra.

Nov. 12—Dance at Lee's Hall "Much Liquid Happiness." Proceeds of dance applied as payment on the piano.

Nov. 15—Business meeting at the school house, all lady patrons provided with automobiles for conveyance and served with "A genuine Pink Tea at 5 p.m."

Nov. 16—Public Auction Sale. Nov. 26—Bazaar and dance to be given at Lee's Hall, proceeds given to school for miscellaneous needs.

Nov. 28—A farewell party to be given Mrs. T. G. Chailand and Mrs. R. W. Dahl whom expect to spend the winter, and spring months with friends and relatives in Chicago and Salt Lake City respectively.

Dominion Pianos are well known all over Canada. Order now so as to have your piano for Christmas. Reasonable prices and terms.

AT THE REX Attention Farmers

James J. Corbett wants the world to forget that he once held the championship of the ring and to accept him on the stage simply as an actor, but the public still likes to see him in a scrap. Thus naturally, there is a free-for-all scrap in his new photodrama, "The Prince of Avenue A," the photodrama in which he is being presented by Universal and which will be shown at the Rex Theatre tonight and Thursday 24th and 25th.

Are you a marriage slacker? Do you awake at night from a hectic nightmare in which you see yourself being led up the aisle by some baby-eyed blonde or aloof-eyed brunette eager to slip Kid Hymen's noose around your neck. If you belong to that species known as confirmed-bachelor or woman-hater or matrimonial-shirker, you will have an opportunity to see LOCKLEAR will be at the Rex on Wednesday and Thursday, Dec. 1 and 2, in his last great play. He features in "The Great Air Robbery."

Many in town and district saw Locklear act in real life, and he surely was a thriller.

Graft and Folly Destroyed Democrats.

In the American Presidential elections last week, the expected happened, but happened harder than anyone expected. Such an avalanche of popular support as was bestowed upon the Republican candidate, Senator Harding, has hardly been equalled in the history of politics. As one American enthusiast watching the billboards put it, "Harding makes Lincoln look like a piker." Yet it can be said with certainty that in no American political contest in the last half century has either candidate of the old line parties personally aroused less enthusiasm. In New York men, with the full intention of voting Republican went about saying that the choice was between Debs and "Dubs" the dubs being Harding and Cox.

Though the League of Nations played a very important part on the hustings, because it was a good theme under cover of which Harding could play for the German vote and Cox for the Irish vote, it is clear that the American vote, of which little was heard, counted for a good deal after all. The American vote was concerning itself less with hypothetical questions like the League and British menace than with the deplorable administrative record of the Wilson Cabinet. During the first term 1912-16, Woodrow Wilson was surrounded by men of high general ability, but the second term when men of the highest administrative ability were a positive national necessity, the ablest of his original ministers gradually dropped out and incompetency became the order of the day at Washington. The Republican National Committee made perfectly legitimate and ruthless use of the innumerable instances of maladministration, corruption and incompetency, which characterized most departments and especially that of Newton D. Baker, secretary for war whose actions touched the honor of the nation most nearly of all.

A tithe of the facts cited in a Republican pamphlet "Money-Mad Democracy Amuck Among the Billions," of which millions were circulated would be sufficient to unhorse any government on earth. Under the flexible parliamentary system of Great Britain, or Canada, no administration could have lasted a month after some of the scandals recited had been revealed. Under the American system of fixed tenure it was necessary to

OXO GENERATES HEAT

Concentrated Beef Cubes Fortify Body Against Chills.
An Oxo cube dissolved in a cup of hot water is a splendid thing to take before going out in the cold or damp, or on coming in, if one feels the slightest ill effects. Besides its nourishing and invigorating properties, Oxo acts as a fuel in the body, generating heat that the system requires.
Oxo cubes—in tins of four and ten cubes—have endless possibilities. For soups, sauces, gravies, savory dishes and meat jellies, they do all that meat could do, and do it quicker and with less trouble. Use Oxo cubes with "left-overs" and oddsends for new, delicious dishes. There is nothing better than Oxo for building sturdy boys and girls.

Radicalism and Poison Gas.

It was in April 1915, that Germany introduced poison gas to a horrified world. Some people imagined that when the armistice came and the big war was over, we had seen the last of poison gas, perhaps for all time to come. Nothing could be farther from the truth. The world is just chuck full of poison gas. You find it at political meetings in Toronto where the characters of Grit candidates are torn to pieces for presumably having the support of Roman Catholics.

You find it in the East Elgin (Ontario) Federal byelection campaign, where U. F. O. orators condemn everything in sight, including the Navy League, Admiral Jellicoe, the banking system, the public ownership of railways, the private ownership of banks, and of course the tariff "We want more for ourselves" yells the orator. "Of course, of course," is the response of the admiring throng.

You find it at Ottawa when the Lindsay Crawfords, Armand Laverges, and Mrs. Prentors gab of Britain's abuse of the Irish people. (God save Ireland from its friends).

You find it at the meetings of trades and labor when the Jimmy Simpsons and other misguided muddlers try to make their hearers believe that Sovietism and red flags would improve our conditions.

You find it in England where the Sylvia Pankhursts are doing their best to follow the instructions of Lenin and make the British Isles a shambles such as Russia.

You find it at the meetings addressed by Premier Meighen, where people foregather who would rather be lied to than have the truth told them by the doughty little Premier.

You find it at meetings of veterans where much nonsense and little sense has been talked by paid organizers.

We breathe in this poison gas from all sides. We are saturated with it. Where can we turn for relief? Not to the average newspaper, I'll be bound. Most of them are following along in the procession. Poison gas is said to be popular, so we will give it to 'em, in double doses. Turn on the tap. More poison gas. Let the radical spout, and he gets a column. Let the president of one of our giant industries say a few words about rational conduct and stability of business and he gets four lines with a "boo boo" in the middle of it. Any bum who would rather "organize" something radical than work is met with streams of publicity. More poison gas.

Let any hard headed public man try to tell an audience these days that the old order is better than anything yet discovered and put it into practice, and the poison gasers will envelope him. If he gets out alive he is in luck.

This is the day of the tub-thumper and the soap-boxer. Government by the mob, business without profit, public ownership of industry (look at Russia and sigh!), fancy taxation methods which would get us everything but money, and the implication that any business man who has two dollars to rub together is a grafter or a profiteer.

should be to talk about this. He is a smoker himself and should have better sense. We are further informed that it is bad for our morals. Perhaps that is correct, though we have not noticed it. Possibly we have no morals to go bad. In any event they are out to kill than Scarlet Woman, Lady Nicotine.

But sorrow of sorrows, what are we going to do about it. I tell what we will do—Nothing! We will just stand around and let them do it. Vale! Vale!

VICTORIA AND VANCOUVER ISLAND WHERE GRASS IS ALWAYS GREEN AND GOLFERS PLAY AT CHRISTMAS

FROM VANCOUVER TO VICTORIA

THE EMPRESS, VICTORIA

Vancouver Island folk pick roses in the garden when the Christmas bells are ringing, and the golfer is never off his game, so far as being able to play is concerned, because there he can drive, approach the green and putt almost every day in the year. In the fall and during the winter the grass is rich and green, and bloom is perpetual. This is due to the warming influence of the Japan current, which is the Gulf Stream of the Pacific Ocean. Vancouver Island was named after Captain George Vancouver, of the British Navy, who discovered it in 1792, and has an estimated area of 15,000 square miles. Its trees, among them the stately Douglas fir, which towers 300 feet above the roads over which the traveller glides by automobile, or by the B. C. Railway, which runs northward through half the length of the island, are magnificent beyond description, some of them being 6 or 7 feet in diameter. Along the coast are many comfortable hotels and country chalets, many of them like the Inns one finds on English country roads. Victoria, the capital of British Columbia, is a city of rare charm with its beautiful drives, its golf courses, its Chinese quarter, its turbaned Hindus, its Empress Hotel and its beautiful Capitol buildings. Every year at least 5,000 American golfers visit one course in Victoria, the Victoria Golf Club course and thousands of automobiles leave Seattle annually for Victoria and Vancouver. There is splendid inland and deep sea fishing in and on the coast of Vancouver Island, and the ambitious fisherman who really wanted to do something sensational has even gone out on the west coast waters of the Pacific and caught a real whale for breakfast. Needless to say, he did not have it served on toast.

The Position of Wheat

(From an English Standpoint) The "London Grain, Seed and Oil Reporter" of Oct. 15, says: "Business on the import markets has been confined almost entirely to parcels of Nos 1 and 2 American Winters of various classes. Far more of these have been on offer than millers have been able to take, and distributing agents have had at times to carry their allocations over from one market day to another. Last Friday Liverpool, by way of variety had some Manchurian and Australian parcels as well as the usual Winters.

Stocks of wheat in public granaries in London, on October 1, were nearly ten times more than on the same date last year, being 427,767 qrs, against only 49,261 qrs, on Oct. 1, 1919. In Scotland the stock was 380,400 qrs, against only 54,180 qrs. a year previously. In the Liverpool district they were well on towards 1,000,000 qrs, against about a fifth of that quantity on October the first last year. Available returns of stocks of wheat in the U.K. public warehouses may well be close on to 3,000,000 qrs, but the returns are to incomplete, and overlap too much, for actual figures to be arrived at, but they are obviously six or seven times as great as they were a year ago. The returns recently have shown that arrivals are enormously above the consumptive requirements so that stocks are everywhere increasing.

Dr. Byer's Sale

Sheep breeders are asked to pay particular attention to Dr. Byer's auction sale, at his farm one mile north of Rimby, on Dec. 6. A fine lot of horses and cattle will be sold, and in addition 275 head of the best breeding ewes in the province. They are all well bred and young, and this will be an exceptional chance to get some most desirable animals. See lists and bills. C. F. Damron will have charge 12 months time will be given.

Great Entertainer New Program

The appearance of Leslie Grossmith at Opera House on Friday November 26th is arousing considerable enthusiasm among those interested in good refined entertainment. Mr. Hugh S. Barbour will also appear as solo violinist and a real musical treat is anticipated. The novelty of the entertainment offered is the great amount of variety contained in the programme, which is composed of refined humorous sketches, monologues, dramatic readings and as much fun as we would find with a whole company of comedians. An added attraction is the dance to follow for which special music will be provided. A large audience is almost assured.

Don't forget big entertainment and dance by Leslie Grossmith and party, Friday, November 26th.

A PUBLIC SCANDAL!!!

It is reported that Mrs. Elliott says that Mrs. Halpin told that she heard Mrs. Parsons say that Mrs. Innis told that Mrs. Green had heard there was no doubt that Mrs. McCurdy said that Miss Inskip thought Mrs. Owen had told Mrs. Pringle that Mrs. Wiltsie had declared to Miss Hiron that it was generally believed that Mrs. Fincham said in plain terms that she heard Mrs. Folli and Mrs. Bradbury say that their friend Mrs. Pearce had said that Miss Pye had informed her in town that it is a well known fact all over the country that Mrs. Clark caught Mrs. Roberts saying, in her opinion it was a matter of fact of great public interest that Mrs. Attrell who lives right near the church, had told Mrs. Rev. Love, that the English church sale of work and tea, this year is to be the best they have ever had. This latter report is absolutely true. Don't forget the date, Dec. 4 1920 in the rotunda of the Adelphi Hotel where it is comfortable and warm to meet all your friends and have a cup of tea, or buy your Christmas gifts.

Bentley News

Sunday, Nov. 28th, will be the Seventeenth Anniversary of Rainy Creek church. The Ladies Aid will give a community dinner and a social evening, on Friday evening, November 26.

Forms and Functions of Governments in Canada

Under a democratic form of government it is of the utmost importance that the masses of the people who constitute the democracy have a clear grasp and an intelligent understanding of the machinery and functions of government, and this is especially true in countries like Canada where the powers, responsibilities and functions of government are divided as between Federal, Provincial and municipal legislative and administrative bodies.

Important as it has always been, that people should have an understanding of the political conditions under which they live and are governed, it is perhaps even more important today than at any previous period in history. In these times, when it would be both idle and foolish to deny that a spirit of unrest prevails, changes in the existing forms of government are being advocated in many quarters. Utopian but utterly impracticable ideas are advanced by some organizations; others urge a complete revolution along lines advocated by adherents of the One Big Union; some would have the Soviet system of Russia introduced; the cry of "self determination" is raised, although it is not made very clear what calls for determination; and, in general, there is a re-grouping and re-alignment of the masses of the people in regard to matter political.

Because of these conditions, it is more important than ever before that there should be a clear understanding of the present system, methods and functions of government in Canada which these several bodies of opinion would alter, change, and, in some instances, absolutely destroy if they had their way.

It is unquestionably true that in these Western Provinces, where such a large percentage of the people have come from other lands where conditions and forms of government are quite different, much confusion exists as to the different spheres of government vested in the Federal Parliament at Ottawa and in the Legislative Assemblies of the various Provinces. Because of this, it has been suggested that a series of articles of a purely educational character dealing with government in Canada would be both valuable and timely.

For example, the newcomer, whether from the United States or some European country, finds it exceedingly difficult to understand the relation which exists between the British Crown and Governments in Canada. The immigrant from Europe, familiar with the old autocratic monarchical government in his native land, entertains the idea that somewhat similar conditions prevail in Canada, possibly even worse, and that Canada, as a possession of the British Crown, is ruled by governors appointed overseas. Incoming settlers from the United States, in many instances, have a vague and hazy notion that in Canada people do not enjoy the same liberties and principles of democratic responsible government prevailing across the line—that, because we are subjects of King George V., we do not enjoy complete independence of action, and many believe that Canada has to pay tribute or taxes to England.

The very fact that all legislation is enacted in the name of the King, that the Government is spoken of as the King's Government, and that the Royal Assent is required to all legislation passed before it becomes law, leads to a belief in many quarters that Canadians do not enjoy all the rights of self-government and as full exercise of all liberties as do the people of the United States or any other country.

As a matter of fact, King George V. exercises far less power in Canada than the President does in the United States. The King in England, or his representative, the Governor-General in Canada, or any of the Provincial Lieutenant-Governors, have the power to dismiss their ministers from office. But the President of the United States has the same power. In the United States, however, the people have no remedy except to elect a new President when the next election comes round, be that time long or short. In Canada, the people must be consulted in a general election immediately, and, if their verdict is in favor of the dismissed ministers, the Governor-General, or the Lieutenant-Governor, as the case may be, is recalled from office.

The King, or his representative, is obliged to accept as his ministers and advisers those men who are shown to have the confidence of the people through their election to Parliament or Legislature, and who command the support of a majority of all the members in Parliament or Legislature. The moment a Ministry loses the support of such a majority of the people's elected representatives, it must resign and make way for a new Ministry possessing such support. In the United States, on the other hand, the President personally selects his own cabinet of ministers, men who may, or may not, be the choice of the people, and men who may not command the support of a majority in Congress.

The Crown is a common tie binding all parts of the British Empire together, but the Crown does not, and cannot, legislate of itself, impose taxes, or enforce laws. These things can only be done by the elected representatives of the people and the courts of law which those representatives in their wisdom create. In a word, in no country do the people enjoy wider liberties or greater freedom of action than in Canada, both Federally and Provincially.

Modern Treasure Islands

Nauru Near Asia Is Worth Untold Millions.

Situated in the Pacific Ocean, nearly midway between America and Asia, is Nauru, a barren bit of rock only twelve miles in circumference. Thirty or forty years ago almost anybody could have had it for the asking. Today it is worth untold millions, owing to the belated discovery that the whole island is neither more nor less than a mass of phosphate rock, soil fertilizer well-known to agriculturists. In Concepcion Bay, Newfoundland is Bell Island, sold by its original owner many years ago for $100. It changed hands again, for 2 million dollars. This enormous rise in value was due to the discovery that the island is composed almost entirely of iron ore. For years previously ship-masters had been in the habit of taking the heavy easily handled rock for ballast, dumping it overboard with the utmost unconcern when they loaded up with cargo. Then, one day, a captain more curious than the others, had the strange looking "rock" assayed, and his fortune was made.

Love is seldom confessed until the evidence reaches the stage where making a confession is merely a matter of form.

Must Accept Price Level

$3 Wheat Is Too Much For World To Pay.

"The world has not the purchasing power to buy $3 wheat," E. G. Nourse, head of agricultural economics, Iowa State Agricultural College, said in an address before the Farmers' Bank of Eastern Iowa. He was discussing the farmers' strike and market conditions. Deliberate marketing to keep pace with the fall of prices of things farmers must buy is a better remedy than the strike, Mr. Nourse said. Farmers must accept the general price level, but are now obliged to accept all the cut in the deflation process.

400 Sorts of Silk Worms.

Barbers in India

Are Important Persons and Always In Great Demand.

The barber is an individual of great importance in India and is in constant demand. At a birth the Hindu barber is the man employed to carry the eventful news to the various family relatives, while at a funeral he shaves the heads of the living—and the dead. The Hindu haircutter has his shop, and displays no poles, signs or symbols. He can be seen strolling along near the bazaars, with a small bundle under his arm or carrying a little bag. At all religious rites he is to be observed; he bores the girls' ears and noses for the various rings which are worn; and, in fact, the busy Hindu barber will undertake almost any surgical operation. Besides births and deaths, he attends marriages. At a wedding, we are told, this busy barber is "best man." The touch of this handy man, by the way, is exceptionally light, and it is said that he can shave his customers while they sleep.

Big Game Being Protected

Alberta Taking Steps to Protect Bands of Antelope.

Alberta will have a new animal park if the present plans of the Dominion game authorities are carried out successfully. Steps are being taken to provide some measure of protection for bands of antelope now running wild in the Brooks and Lake Minnabo districts, and it is expected that they will soon be added to the list of big-life agos which the Federal Government is maintaining in the province.

There are about one hundred and seventy-five animals in the lot, and it is proposed to construct strong fences in which to enclose and protect them.

Vilna's History.

Vilna, the pleasant little city on the Viliya, where the Poles proclaimed a new government recently, has an interesting history. It was here that, long years ago, the Poles kept the sacred fire of paganism burning on the castle hill night and day. The city has lived through some strenuous ages fighting Teutonic knights, Tartars and other medieval Bolsheviks—not always successfully. With one eye on culture, even in the most gory days, Vilna still keeps the volumes—some 200,000—of her famous suppressed university.

German Finances.

Germany's treasury faces a deficit of approximately 70,000,000,000 marks, Dr. Karl Helfferich, former vice-chancellor, declared in the reichstag. Dr. Wirth, stated the cabinet had decided to introduce a bill providing for a "sacrifice tax," adding that the government would ask a credit of 1,000,000,000 marks to buy cereals abroad.

Curious Contrasts.

A survey of four counties in Indiana disclosed the following facts: Ninety-six per cent. of the farmers have automobiles, 97 per cent. have no electric lights, 94 per cent. have no bathtubs, 81 per cent. carry water into the kitchen by hand, and, not least, the farmers' wives worked 15 hours per day in summer, and 12 hours per day in winter.—Chicago News.

Wealth in Old Stamps

Trunk Filled With Old Letters Worth A Fortune.

An old trunk, decayed and crumbling to pieces, discovered by workmen in an attic in Philadelphia, containing nothing but bundles of letters, has been found to be worth a fortune in old stamps. "The man in the Street" would never recognize the worth of such a mass of apparent trash, but philatelists say the stamps on such old letters, crude, martinet little stickers though they are, now are worth a king's ransom. Examination of a few of the letters reveals the fact that the entire collection of correspondence, once occupied the files in the law office of one William Morris Meredith, a man of large acquaintance, who received letters from persons in all parts of the country and abroad.

Paring a corn is both risky and ineffective. It is much better to use Holloway's Corn Remover and eradicate them entirely.

Cost Of Cosmetics.

Rosy complexions, ruby lips and fragrant personalities cost the women of the United States $750,000,000 last year, according to luxury tax returns in respect of these diminutive but important articles of the toilette. During the same period $300,000,000 was spent on furs. Is this triumph of comfort in condensation over comfort in bulk.—Victoria Times.

WEAK, NERVOUS AND RUN DOWN

A Condition Afflicting Thousands of People—How to Get New Health.

There are thousands of people who are enduring the pain and discomfort of minor ills in the hope that the indisposition is only temporary and will be outgrown in time. Often such illnesses are not serious enough to require the attention of a doctor, but will respond to intelligent home treatment if a reliable remedy is used. Women, busy with a multitude of household cares, young women in offices or stores, or girls studying hard in school, easily fall a prey to that condition of bloodlessness known as anaemia. The trouble need not be serious if prompt, effective measures are taken to check it in its early stages. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills—will restore the elements needed to bring the blood back to strength, and once the blood regains its healthy quality the entire body will soon show the benefit. Among the many who have found benefit through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is Mrs. James J. Johnston, of Peterboro, Ont., who says: "I can personally and strongly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills because of what they have done for me. About two years ago I felt poorly, was terribly weak, nervous and run down. I was easily annoyed and worried, and my heart would flutter at the least exertion. I tried several remedies, but did not find a cure until I took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I took seven boxes in all and am now enjoying perfect health, and have gained much weight. I calculate the cost small when I think of the benefit I received, and I recommend the pills to all weak people."

Rich, red blood is the whole secret of good health, and from the first to the last dose Dr. Williams' Pink Pills enrich and purify the blood. You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Guarding Crown Jewels

Kept in Safe Place at Windsor Castle During War.

In a recently published book, Sir George Youngblood gives an account of what happened to the Crown Jewels during the war. He starts with the visit of a German lady to the Tower just before the war. "You may think those jewels very wonderful and very wonderfully guarded," she remarked to the yeoman on duty, "but don't be surprised if I say they will soon belong to our Kaiser." When the daylight raids started four bombs promptly fell near the Tower, and later one fell in the river near to the ancient walls. The total casualties, writes General Youngblood, were: "One pigeon, which probably had a weak heart and died of shell shock. One pane of window broken in the Jewel House." "After those narrow escapes," writes the Keeper of the Jewel House, "a Royal car drove into the Tower of London and to the Jewel House. Into it the more important and valuable portions of the Regalia, already packed in their own cases were handed. It was all a matter of a few minutes, and then the car drove away to Windsor Castle and there deposited the jewels in a safe place. The return journey at the end of the war was equally simple and effectively accomplished."

Asthma Can be Relieved. Its suffering is as needless as it is terrible to endure. After the relief it has given to the most stubborn cases no sufferer can doubt the effectiveness of Dr. J. D. ## CLEANLINESS IS HEALTH

By the use of Gillett's Lye, house cleaning is made a pleasure instead of a drudgery. It softens the water and cleans thoroughly whether the dirt is visible or invisible. Destroys all bacteria and infectious germs, removes obstructions from drain pipes, closets, sinks, etc. Refrigerators are made delightfully fresh and clean by using one teaspoonful of Gillett's Lye dissolved in two gallons of water.

Origin of Word "Poltroon"

In Olden Days Meant Person Without Thumb.

The word "poltroon" has a rather interesting origin, having started out in life as pollice truncus, a Latin phrase, meaning one who had been deprived of his thumb. In the olden days when bows and arrows were the main weapon of the soldier, the thumb was a most essential part of the hand, for without it the archer could not hope to draw the bow with anything like good aim or exert his arm's full strength. To avoid military service many a man chopped off his own thumb or got his wife to perform the act for him. In time the man who did this bit of self-exemption became known as a "poltrun," and the last change to its present usage is easily traced.

"Pape's Diapiesin" for Stomach

"Pape's Diapiesin" is the quickest, surest relief for Indigestion, Gases, Flatulence, Heartburn, Sourness, Fermentation or Stomach Disease caused by acidity. A few tablets given almost immediate stomach relief and shortly the stomach is corrected so you can eat favorite foods without fear. Large case costs only 50 cents at drug store. Absolutely harmless, and pleasant. Millions helped annually. Largest selling stomach corrector in world.

Alberta Wheat Movement.

Large quantities of wheat and other cereals are being moved daily from Alberta. Between four hundred and five hundred cars are being supplied daily by one railway. Complaints of car shortage, notwithstanding size of the crop this year, are practically nil.

Minard's Liniment For Garget in Cows.

Advocates Niagara Dam. Dr. T. Kennard Thomson, consulting engineer, New York, in an address to the civic club of the University of Toronto, speaking of power development schemes at Niagara Falls, advocated the construction of a gigantic dam across the Niagara River four miles below the falls, thus forming an entirely new waterfall having a potential "head" of 100 feet and capable of producing 2,000,000 horsepower. This power, Dr. Thompson said, should be divided equally between the United States and Canada at a yearly rental to each country of $10 per horsepower produced.

Survey Director.

To Eradicate Weeds

Weed Train Will Be Run Through Prairie Provinces.

Arrangements for the running of a "weed train" through Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta for six weeks, commencing about the last week in January, were made by the Deputy Ministers of Agriculture of the three provinces, who met in Saskatoon recently. The train will be equipped with all of the necessary material to demonstrate the growth of the various weeds of the prairie provinces through their various stages, as well as the best means of eradicating them. The train will be composed of two lecture cars, a demonstration car, and a sleeper and diner for the personnel. It will be manned by representatives of the Departments of Agriculture of the provinces concerned, their colleges of agriculture, and the rural municipal associations. A representative of each province will accompany the train throughout its entire trip, although in each province the lecturers will be chosen from that province. It is planned to cover with the train this year as many as possible of the points on the Canadian Pacific Railway, and next year to take up the Canadian National lines. There will be two meetings a day. Two weeks will be spent in each province.

Rural Depopulation

Claims Although Fewer People on the Land, Production Has Not Decreased.

Referring to the numerous discussions on the subject of rural depopulation, Sir John Willison, in discussing it at the Canadian Club, Toronto, said that though there were fewer people on the land today than there were a few years ago, general production had not decreased—it had been multiplied by machinery. The supposition that farming was less profitable under present conditions than formerly was not supported by the facts, Sir John said. Governmental meddling in business only produced confusion. Sir John added, and public regulation of prices produced a scarcity in the products affected and ultimately increased prices. Instead of the luxury tax there should be a one per cent. tax all around on sales, in Sir John's opinion.

Sask. Farmers Own Insurance Co.

The Agricultural Insurance Company organized last spring by Saskatchewan farmers, and owned and operated entirely by them, is making rapid progress, and its experience up to the present has been most gratifying. At the last report the company had yet to receive its first claim for loss by fire, and the hail insurance business of the last season brought satisfactory results. The company has already over one thousand farmer shareholders, its purpose being to provide a means by which the farmers of Saskatchewan can do their own business with their own money.

The Aerial Bootlegger.

The whirr of the aeroplane motor is now heard together with the hum of the speedy automobile along the international border, according to police authorities. Two unidentified planes are now plying their trade as "rum runners," not far from Estevan, Sask. The aviators are believed to be Americans and their aerodrome is unregistered. So far the police have been helpless in their efforts to nab the aviators.

Agricultural Grant.

Saskatchewan's share of the Dominion Government's grant under the Agricultural Instruction Act for the present fiscal year will be $81,728, the total grant for the nine provinces being $1,100,000. The grant will be devoted to every branch of agricultural education, including research and extension work, post-graduate courses as well as elementary agricultural teaching.

Butter and Eggs in Storage.

According to a report from the Bureau of Statistics, there were, in the month of October, more than 25,000,000 pounds of creamy butter, 20,000,000 pounds of cheese and 13,000,000 dozens of eggs in storage in Canada.

Complete in itself, Mother Graves' Worm Expeller does not require the assistance of any other medicine to make it effective. It does not fail to do its work.

Fight For Natural Resources.

Hon. J. R. Boyle, attorney-general of Alberta, has prepared a case along similar lines to that of the provincial treasurer of Manitoba, but, strange to say, without any co-operation. He is ready to launch a case in the courts to secure possession of the natural resources on behalf of the province of Alberta, and will institute such action, if the Dominion Government does not take action within a reasonable time.

Women of Canada Who Testify

Tillsonburg, Ont.—"Ever since I can remember, Dr. Pierce's medicines were used in our family at home, and they never failed to give good results. The 'Golden Medical Discovery' was used as a tonic and blood purifier, and it proved excellent. I have personally taken the 'Favorite Prescription' for bronchial trouble, and the 'Favorite Prescription' to build me up when I was run-down and they both were very beautiful. Mother always used Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla for gain; it also was very good. I feel sure in recommending all of Dr. Pierce's medicines knowing them to be good."—MRS. CLIFF FORD MITCHELL.

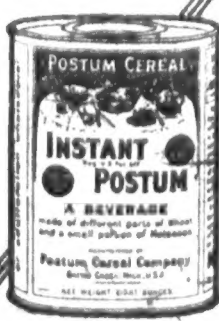

Central Butte, Sask.—"I have used Dr. Pierce's Medical Discovery for a number of years and am pleased to recommend it as a blood purifier. I know it has no equal as I used it for my boy for tuberculosis of the knee joint. My neighbors and friends were surprised with the results; in fact, I do not think he would be alive today had it not been for the 'Medical Discovery.' I also keep it on hand for coughs as it differs so from other cough medicines, instead of upsetting the stomach as most cough syrups do it is good for the stomach. I only wish I had known about Dr. Pierce's medicines sooner."—MRS. PERCY WOOD.

When you take Golden Medical Discovery, you are getting the benefit of the experience of a doctor whose reputation goes all around the earth. Still more, you get a temperance medicine that contains not a drop of alcohol or narcotic of any kind. Look up Dr. Pierce's medicines; you will find valuable vegetable ingredients—without the use of alcohol—so that his remedies always have been strictly temperance medicines.

From the Diary of A Hudson's Bay Clerk in the Seventies

By O-G-E-MAS-ES (Little Clerk).

We had the district accounts at The Pas that winter and if ever an H. B. clerk was sick of book-keeping I was the man. My Chief (dear A.M.) was a splendid fellow, but disliked all hardship and exposure, while this to me was meat and drink. By dint of much cooking I had the remnants of what train dogs were left after six trains (four dogs to a train) had been picked by the native drivers—a wretched outfit. They would stop when I jumped on the toboggan, but by dint of good feeding and much running they were by no means the worst team in the spring. Corriege was the foregoer, and I secured him in trade from Batsue for a fat, lazy husky, and wondered at my own luck and also why he was fool enough to trade even. I soon found out; for on a trip to the Mountain there was a long muskrat traverse and just one decent spot to boil the kettle. On reaching this spot with an appetite sharper than a wolf, I sung out, "Whoa, Corriege!" He turned his head, gave me a cunning look, then bolted like a jack rabbit, and it was at least two hours before I got near the sleigh again, with feelings too deep for words.

I realized then why Batsue traded even (as this it appears, was his usual game), but it was not until the following winter that I got even with Corriege, when, with man against dog, I ran him down between Cumberland House and Fort La Corne, and that seemed to take the heart out of him. But I am a long way off from those plagued district accounts. It is always the way in the north; start any subject you like and it will always end in Dog, and yet again Dog. I have heard Donald A. Smith when he was Governor of the Company, with other high officials at the Fort Garry mess, when the desert was put on the table and the wine glasses filled, all vying with one another as to the merits of their particular dog trains, and I think one must hand it to Donald A. for the best yarns. Perhaps that is why he was made top-dog.

We had several outposts from The Pas that winter and when the accounts got too much for me, A.M. would suggest that an inspection should be made and the native trader checked up. It was a good winter for far and I thoroughly enjoyed the trips here and there. There was but one fault, and that was that they were too short. However, before spring, I had a ten-day trip, and that eased the tension for a while. Along about the end of February we found there was likely to be a great shortage of ammunition in the spring, especially if the rat hunt was big, and all signs pointed that way. The nearest point to a further supply was Grand Rapids Post at the mouth of the Saskatchewan River, something over 150 miles away by trail. The snow was deep and no trail broken through, but it was that or nothing. So A.M. decided to send six dog teams and I volunteered to lead the party. We started out early one day heavily loaded with dog-fish, as we had to catch on the trip down, there being no supply at The Rapids. It took us four days to reach the post, when we spelled a day, then loaded our sleds with 400 lbs. each, consisting of dog food, provisions and bedding on top of that, and started for home.

It had snowed I think every day since we left The Pas. The weather was awfully cold and windy, with no sign of the trail we had broken coming down. Cedar Lake was the only decent bit of going on the whole trip, but the river was over waist deep in soft heavy snow, and every driver had to use a pushing stick and work equally hard with his dogs. We had a spare man to break track ahead, but I soon found all must take turns, as one hour or less in front of the dogs was enough for any of us and, then you would be wet to the skin with the heavy exertion.

Five nights had passed on our homeward journey and our rations were about done, both for men and dogs. There were still some thirty miles to go yet and the men were getting out of hand and mutinous. My own feet were cut to pieces with the snowshoe lugs, but I did not dare show any feeling in the matter, for at the least sign of weakening on my part the loads would have been chucked on the ice. There is only one cure that I know of for sore feet snowshoeing, and that is to treat them like your hands, keep away from the fire and at every stop take off your moccasins and duffles, then wade in the snow till your feet get numb. (To be continued)

Consider That Veterans Are Absorbed Into Civil Life

No Special Provision Will Be Made For Finding Work For Returned Soldier.

Winnipeg.—A special despatch to the Free Press from its Ottawa correspondent reads: "Whatever Federal methods are devised during the coming winter months to cope with the unemployment situation, which threatens to be acute in the urban centres, they will be adopted without particular regard for the returned soldier. Apart from the care of seriously disabled men, which will be continued under the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment for some time yet, the returned soldier in future will have to fend for himself, and is looked upon, as having been absorbed into the civilian life.

Any means which are devised by the federal authorities to deal with the unemployment situation will have regard for the unemployed as a whole and without distinction. The assistance provided to help unemployed returned men over last winter expired in March, last (for single men) and April (for married men). Under the provisions of the appropriations only about $10,000,000 were disbursed, employment having been found for the majority of needy cases within a brief period of the receipt of first financial assistance. In fact it cannot be said that fears of abuse of the assistance were realized.

There is now no parliamentary provision for a continuation of the assistance during the coming winter and the machinery for doing so has been pretty well scrapped. During the past summer, it is stated, there were few cases of unemployment among returned men.

Unemployment is now largely a provincial matter. The federal authorities, however, undertake to pay half the cost of the upkeep of the provincial labor bureau, while the labor department assists in the compilation of statistics showing at what points and in what particular industry labor is required.

Wrangel's Troops Fought Well

Praise Heroism During Days of the Crimean Disaster.

Constantinople.—Allied officers here praise the heroism of Gen. Wrangel's troops during the days of the Crimean disaster. The cavalry divisions of sub-Generals Markoff, Barbovitch and Skalon, suffered terrific losses in defending Percekop, which it is believed would have held out if Wrangel's forces were not outflanked on the frozen putrid sea.

The Niemetski regiment was virtually wiped out, there being only five survivors.

Cyclone In Sicily.

Rome.—Sicily was visited by a cyclone causing eleven deaths in the town of Mialmeri and destroying a number of houses in Bagheria and other places, according to a Palermo despatch to the Stefania agency. The message adds Palermo was flooded, causing the stoppage of the electric and water supplies.

Confer On Greek Situation.

Paris.—Conversations over the situation in Greece, created by the defeat of Venizelos are in progress between France and Great Britain, it was stated at the Foreign Office. Neither country, it was explained, will act without the other.

Who is well-known as the author of "Rhymes of a Red Cross Man," "Rhymes of a Rolling Stone," "Songs of a Sourdough," and other poems.

United States Farmers Would Hold Wheat

Advised to Not Market Grain Until Price Is Restored.

Kansas City.—A nation-wide producers' strike, to combat the falling prices of farm products, was urged in a call sent out by the National Farmers' Union to its local unions throughout the country. The proposed strike was urged in retaliation for what the convention considered abnormal deflation in prices of farm products, through which it was asserted the farmers of the United States have been robbed of one billion dollars in reduced value of products now on hand. All farmers were urged to hold this year's production from the markets until "profit-making levels" were restored.

The action of the National Farmers' Union was in line with a "wheat strike," called several weeks ago by the Wheat Growers' Association of the United States. Delegates asserted a considerable quantity of this year's wheat crop was being held off the market by farmers.

Saving Hohenzollern Fortunes

Dutch Bank Is Charged With Aiding To Smuggle Funds of German Nobility.

Berlin.—The state's attorney has seized the books and archives belonging to the Berlin branch of an Amsterdam banking firm, which is charged with having negotiations regarding the smuggling of fortunes belonging to Hohenzollern princes and other members of royalty and the nobility. The bank's quarters have been frequented by leaders of the German nobility, who, it is charged, maintained blind accounts with the bank's local branches which began operations in Berlin soon after the revolution. The former Crown Princess is named among those who have been the personal guests of the head of the bank, whose family is also reported to have enjoyed the hospitality of the former Crown Princess at her residence near Potsdam. The state attorney's raid was "tipped off" to the head of the bank who is believed to have made his way to Holland. The Majority, Socialists are pressing the Government for a statement in the Riksdag on the incident.

Protest from Russia

Participation of British Fleet in the Evacuation of the Crimea Would Be Hostile Act.

Copenhagen.—M. Tchitcherin, the Russian Soviet foreign minister, has sent to Alex Curzon, the British secretary for foreign affairs, a wireless message in which he says that participation of the British fleet in the evacuation of Gen. Wrangel in the Crimea, would constitute a hostile act towards the Soviet and a violation of the assurance that Great Britain gave to the Moscow Government. The message reads: "Information from various sources gives us reason to believe that the intention is entertained of utilizing British vessels to transport Gen. Wrangel and the goods he seizes from Southern Russia to their countries. It cannot be denied that participation of the British navy in the movements of insurgents fighting against Russia would constitute a hostile action on the part of the British Government toward the Russian Government, a violation of the assurances which the British Government has given us on this subject on various occasions."

Penitentiary Reforms

Changes in Administration Likely as Result of Work Done By Royal Commission.

Ottawa.—Many important changes in the administration of Canadian penitentiaries are likely to be made as the result of the work now being done by the Royal Commission named by the Government some time ago to draft new regulations for the penitentiaries. Several sittings of the commission already have been held, and some valuable suggestions have been received from all classes of Canadian officials.

Putting On The Lid.

Washington.—Jamaica ginger came under the prohibition ban in the United States. Orders issued by the Internal Revenue Bureau effective in ninety days, class tincture of ginger, whether sold as Jamaica ginger, extract of ginger, or by whatever other name known, as an alcoholic preparation fit for use for beverage purposes, and subject to prohibition regulations.

Should Control Marketing Of Wheat to Final Consumer

Manager of United Grain Growers of Alberta Expresses Opinion. Calgary, Alta.—"To say that Alberta farmers have gone 'on strike' is a gross misrepresentation of their position," remarked C. Rice-Jones, general manager of the United Grain Growers, in an interview here. "It is a deliberate attempt to put them in an entirely wrong light," he continued.

Mr. Rice-Jones stated that farmers had a perfect right to market their wheat in such a way as they could get the possible price for it, and because they studied the market and because they refuse to put all their wheat on the market at one time of the year, he could not see how any interpretation could be placed on it as a "strike."

"The fact of the matter is," he said, "that before the price was fixed because of conditions farmers were unable to avoid, they were forced to market a large portion of their wheat in the fall, when the price is always down, a considerable portion of it, no doubt, passing into the hands of speculators who hold it until the spring when they are able to sell it at a considerable profit."

It is, therefore, very gratifying to see that the farmers this year, as far as they can, sending their wheat to market in such a way as they will be able to get the best possible price for it. It is not a question of any organized plan that will mean that the wheat will cost the consumer a great deal more, but to save as much of the real value of the wheat for the grower as possible."

Referring to the question of the co-operative marketing of wheat, Mr. Rice-Jones stated that he thought this was probably the most important thing before the farmers at the present time. Farmers should undoubtedly control the marketing of their wheat to the final consumer, he said, through some system of pool marketing.

Vacant Land Settlement

Western Canada Colonization Association Seeking Support from West.

Winnipeg.—At the Provincial Government luncheon to Lieut. Gov. Brett, Alberta, and directors of the Western Canada Colonization Association here, Mayor M. A. Brown, of Medicine Hat, provincial chairman of the association, declared: "Closer settlement of the Canadian West will prove a short route to financial security for Canada as a nation and for the whole Canadian population as individuals."

In outlining the aims, organization and the work already accomplished by the association, Mayor Brown asserted that the settlement and development of from 20,000,000 to 30,000,000 acres of land would mean 500,000 more settlers in the West who would support 500,000 additional residents in Western cities and towns, and result in a corresponding increase in the population of Eastern Canada.

Business men of the West were to be asked to subscribe between $300,000 and $500,000 for the work of the association, the speaker said, and pointed out that activities in the East have resulted in subscriptions totalling $1,300,000.

Defence Problems

Imperial Matters Will Be Discussed At Forthcoming Meeting of Prime Ministers.

London.—Right Hon. Andrew Bonar Law explained in the House of Commons the meeting of prime ministers of the empire, summoned for June next. It will be a meeting along the lines of the Imperial war cabinet meetings which took place in 1917-18. Mr. Bonar Law added that there is a general agreement on imperial defence matters, which will require joint examination in the near future. "But I am not yet able to say precisely what arrangements will be made for their discussion."

Stirs League Assembly

Lord Robert Cecil Represents Boer General Who Formerly Fought Against Empire.

London.—Lord Robert Cecil, who represents South Africa at the League of Nations conference at Geneva, pleading for a bold line in a policy of reconciliation, according to the Morning Post's correspondent said: "I stand before you as a substitute for General Smuts, who 'not many years ago was one of the most redoubtable and one of the most successful commanders of the Boer forces in arms against the British Empire. I am the son of the Prime Minister who conducted that war on behalf of the Empire. Yet that Boer general goes to the son of a British prime minister and asks him to appear before this assembly as the best exponent of his (Smuts) views on international subjects."

The speech was loudly applauded.

Invite Canadians.

Ottawa.—Canada has been invited to send representatives to the international dairy exhibition at Palermo, Buenos Ayres, Argentina, from May 8 to May 27, 1921.

Buy Subs From Britain.

Santander, Spain.—A squadron of six submarine chasers purchased by the Spanish navy from the British admiralty has been delivered here. All of them are of the "Wasp" type.

No Change in Vote.

London.—Results of the Scottish prohibition poll so far show no change in 196 districts; 24 districts have voted for limitation of licenses and 23 for no licenses.

Alberta's Lieut. Governor

Watch Sale of Narcotics

Severe Penalties Provided For Practitioners Who Evade Law.

Ottawa.—All physicians, dentists, veterinary surgeons and retail druggists who obtain supplies of narcotics in any quantity to administer directly to their patients or in connection with practice are considered to be engaged in the distribution of these drugs, and under the amendments made to the act governing drugs at the last session, it is necessary for such practitioners to make returns to the department of health. Forms have been sent out by the department, all engaged in these professions, and heavy penalties are provided under the act for those neglecting or refusing to furnish the declaration in question.

The penalties which, it is stated, will be strictly enforced by the department are a fine of not less than $200 and costs and not more than $1,000 and costs or one year's imprisonment or both fine and imprisonment.

Express System is Wrong

Says Passenger Trains Have Been Turned Into Fast Freights.

St. John, N.B.—"The whole express system is wrong," announced Hon. F. B. Carvell, chairman of the railway commission, which held a session here to hear arguments for and against the proposal to grant the express companies a 40 per cent. increase in rates. Continuing, Mr. Carvell remarked: "Express business has developed into fast freight on passenger trains. It is about time we viewed the situation squarely. Most of the time the trains are late it is due to unloading freight from passenger trains."

Mr. Carvell had just heard representations from the St. John Board of Trade, its secretary, R. E. Armstrong, reading a letter from the Merchants' Association asking that the express companies distribution of rates in the Maritime provinces be allowed to stand so far as fruit was concerned.

Mr. Carvell said he knew that fruit and liquor come by express trains and he had been often delayed by the unloading of "fruit and booze," particularly liquor.

"Raise the rates on liquor," said a voice.

Mr. Carvell expressed the opinion that it should be put up four times.

B.C. Salmon Pack.

Vancouver, B.C.—According to a statement prepared by the British Columbia Salmon Cannery Association the total pack for 1920 is 1,177,045 cases. Prevailing market prices would give this season's pack a selling value of $13,307,719. Last year's pack amounted to 1,393,556 cases.

Boishevik Winter Campaign.

London.—A Kovno despatch to the Central News, by way of Copenhagen, quotes the Pravda as stating that the Soviet Government is preparing for a winter campaign and that a decree calls to the colors all citizens up to the age of 36. Factory workers capable of bearing arms will be replaced by women. Fifteen new divisions are being formed between Moscow and Vitebsk.

Retain Tar Sand Land.

Ottawa.—An order-in-council gazetted this week withdraws from sale, settlement or disposal for any purpose, a further 11,000 acres of land along the Athabasca River containing tar sands. These are subject to gas and petroleum leases already issued and to the permission granted to the Government of Alberta to conduct operations within certain townships for the discovery of gypsum and sodium chloride.

Calder in Ottawa.

Ottawa.—Hon. J. A. Calder, president of the Privy Council, has arrived back in Ottawa from his tour through the West with the Prime Minister. Mr. Calder is suffering from a rather severe cold and is taking a short rest before resuming his official duties.

Suspects Jail Delivery Plot.

Ossing, N.Y.—Discovery of a piece of lint, paper, cotton fibre and other inflammable material in the cell occupied by a Russian in Sing Sing prison, disclosed what Warden Lawes announced he believed was a plot to start a fire in the workshops with the object of a general jail delivery.

Will Not Seize Ports.

London.—The foreign office denied that Great Britain had any intention of seizing Batum or other ports on the Black Sea. The Moscow Soviet had issued a protest against the supposed intention of occupation.

Alleged Plot to Infect Crown Troops With Typhoid Germs

Embargo on Hides

Canada Endeavoring to Prevent Introduction of Animal Diseases Into Country.

Ottawa.—It is announced by the Department of Agriculture in order to prevent the introduction of animal diseases into Canada, a ministerial order governing the importation of hides, skins, etc., has been passed. These regulations, which come within the Animal Contagious Diseases Act, are administered by the Veterinary Director-General. Under conditions stated in the order, the importation of hides of horses, cattle and buffalo, calf skins, sheep skins, goat skins, deer skins, glue stock, bones, hoofs and horns into the Dominion of Canada from any other countries of Europe, Asia, Africa, South America, Central America, Mexico, New Zealand and Australia is prohibited. Regulations governing the importation of wool and hair have been passed with the same purpose in view.

Won't Give Up

General Wrangel's Third Army Is Still Intact in the Ukraine.

Paris.—The defeat of General Baron Wrangel, commander-in-chief of the Russian volunteer army in the Crimea, will not end the fight against the Bolsheviks. Basile Maklakoff, special envoy in Paris for General Wrangel declared here.

"We will never give up the struggle against Bolshevism," he said. "There are other ways besides the use of arms and munitions in which the Bolsheviks can be put down, and perhaps the fight will continue along bloodless lines."

General Wrangel's third army is still intact in the Ukraine. M. Maklakoff explained and this could form the basis of a new military movement.

Sinn Fein Give Evidence.

Washington.—Eye witness reports of recent disturbances in Ireland were given at the opening hearings of the "Commission of the Committee of One Hundred Investigating the Irish Question."

All witnesses heard were partisans of the Sinn Fein movement, and all maintained that civil processes in Ireland, except those of the "Provisional Irish Republic," were practically at an end under the rule of the British military forces.

Condemn Mail Order Houses

Retailers Say They Are A Menace, Driving Smaller Stores Out Of Business.

Toronto.—Mail order houses were strongly condemned by the Ontario branch of the Retail Merchants' Association of Canada at the closing session of the annual convention. They were characterized as a menace to the retailers in the small towns and villages, and it was stated that they had driven many of the small general stores in rural Ontario out of business.

The convention went on record as in favor of a daylight savings measure beginning April 1 and ending Oct. 1 each year, if daylight saving were made Dominion-wide.

Boishevik Winter Campaign.

London.—A Kovno despatch to the Central News, by way of Copenhagen, quotes the Pravda as stating that the Soviet Government is preparing for a winter campaign and that a decree calls to the colors all citizens up to the age of 36. ## Will Not Seize Ports.

London.—The foreign office denied that Great Britain had any intention of seizing Batum or other ports on the Black Sea. The Moscow Soviet had issued a protest against the supposed intention of occupation.

Dublin.—The chief of staff of the Irish Republican army had a narrow escape from capture by the crown forces when the public house in which he was secretly living was raided, according to an official announcement.

It was in this raid that the military captured documents concerning the alleged plot to infect crown troops with typhoid and cavalry horses with glanders, which Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, announced in the House of Commons.

When the military entered the house the chief of staff jumped from the window, vaulting a ten foot wall, got away. As the greatest importance was attached by the military to his capture, they threw out elaborate cordons but without effect. The official announcement says the documents were captured in a raid on the house of Prof. Michael Hayes.

The county council passed a resolution deciding in future that it would comply with the requirements of the local government board and carry on business irrespective of certain decrees of the Dail Eirann (Irish Republican Parliament) recently issued.

This is the first breach among the Irish local bodies in loyalty to the republican parliament. It synchronizes with an application made by the local government board in the Dublin courts against the Dublin City Council and the Monaghan and Cavan County Council to enforce the right of supervision.

Labor Probe for Ireland

British Labor Party to Take Action to Bring About a Settlement.

London.—The executive committee of the Parliamentary Labor Party has issued a manifesto signed by Arthur Henderson, William C. Adamson and John R. Clynes, calling upon the Labor Party throughout the country to take more active steps to secure the withdrawal of all the armed forces from Ireland and the election by proportionate representation of a constituent assembly charged with the task of working out whatever constitution the Irish people desire in order to settle their own affairs, provided proper protection is accorded to minorities and Ireland is prevented from becoming a military or naval menace to Great Britain.

The manifesto explains that this action is taken because of the hopelessness of "expecting anything from a parliament dominated by a mechanical government majority."

It announces that the party has decided to conduct a great national campaign to enlighten the British public on what is happening in Ireland and also to appoint a commission to visit Ireland and investigate the Government's policy and methods.

Miracle Cures

Woman Evangelist Exercises Healing Ministry in Montreal.

Montreal.—Deaf ears unstopped, mute tongues loosened, palsied and atrophied limbs restored to their normal functions so that cripples and palsied people walked off a platform without aid and a deaf mute spoke and gave evidence of ability to hear, were witnessed in Old St. Andrews' Church before a crowded congregation when Mrs. Emma Semple McPherson, the woman evangelist of Ontario, exercised her healing ministry.

One girl, stated to have been a sufferer for years from hip disease, laid aside her crutches and walked up and down with her arms in the air.

Saskatoon Winter Fair.

Saskatoon, Sask.—The most successful winter fair in the history of Saskatoon was held last week. Showings of heavy draft horses were particularly good, and over $6,000 in prizes was distributed. Albert Robbins, of Laura, Sask., won the boys' calf competition. James I. Moffatt, of Carroll, Man., was awarded the grand championship in fatsteers. Follett Brothers, of Duval, Sask., took a large number of prizes in sheep classes.

The annual sheep and swine sale was held. The movement in hogs was not very brisk, but there was considerable trading in sheep, highest ram bringing $140.

Critical Situat on In India.

London.—In the House of Commons, Hon. Edward Samuel Montague, secretary of state for India, admitted that a dangerous situation existed in that country and said that the Government there would be left perfectly free to take whatever steps it deemed necessary in dealing with it.

Will Not Seize Ports.

The Unknown Man

It was in romantic and artistic France that the proposal was first made and acted upon to bury with all manner of pomp and honor, the body of an unknown soldier in a national shrine. The idea, so noble in its simplicity, so just and right in its appreciation of those who really won the war, has been followed in England.
There have been many great funeral processions in Westminster Abbey, but it may be questioned whether any interment of those distinguished dead in day's gone by has made such an appeal to the Anglo-Saxon imagination the wide world over as that which took place on Armistice Day, when the body of an unknown British Soldier, exhumed from a battlefield of Flanders, was borne through the streets of London and laid to rest within Westminster's hallowed walls.

The funeral procession, viewed by hundreds of thousands of Londoners, passed down the Mall to Whitehall.
As chief mourner, and representing the whole nation, the king walked behind the gun carriage on which swathed in the folds of the flag which he died to save, lay the casket containing the remains of the unknown soldier who represented in symbol the hundreds of thousands of private who died that England and freedom might live. Behind the king marched British field-marshal and admirals who acted as pallbearers. Behind them again marched columns of soldiers and sailors with arms reversed. When the cortege reached the site of the cenotaph, His Majesty unveiled that great memorial which Britain has erected to the undying memory of those who fell in the war.

This ceremony was brought to its close with the "Last Post" and the procession continued on its way to the Abbey. There, with all imaginable solemnity, the burial service was recited, the casket was lowered into the tomb, and the reveille was sounded.
At the same time that the sound of the bugle awoke the echoes among the Gothic arches in Britain's camp santo, of the dead, a field marshal's salute was fired on the Horse Guard's Parade. This last honor conferred upon this unknown soldier, as though he had been a prince of the human race, was no doubt, the finest mark of distinction in the history of the world.

The English people have a genius for doing things in fitting style. There is no two opinions about the suitability of Great Britain's acknowledgment of her debt to the anonymous heroes of the Great War. Even the firing of the field marshal's salute was not an exaggeration, for without the strong arms and stronger hearts of the obscure private in the ranks, how could the best dispositions of field marshals and generals have availed.

It is likely that the examples set by Great Britain and France will be followed in other lands. Portugal intends to remember her unknown soldiers in this impressive way. The veterans of Winnipeg are also petitioning the Manitoba government to have the body of one of their dead comrades brought from Flanders and buried with all due honor on the grounds of the new capitol and a monument erected over his grave.

Each province in Canada should so honor an unknown son who died in the war. In times past a great deal of noise has been made about princes and generals and officers who have captained men to victory; in these days we have sense enough to recognize that it is the obscure Greatheart who bares his breast to the foe and who fares worst in the struggle who deserves the greatest applause. At any rate no opportunity should be lost to press home upon the memory of the rising generation the incalculable debt which we owe, which the whole civilized world owes, to these Canadians who went out from humble homes to lay down their lives in the cause of truth and righteousness and human freedom.

Britain's Way

Great Britain has been more patient than usual, but she has at last had the satisfaction of making Mexico come to terms for the assassination of William S. Benton. Benton was murdered at the hands of bandits near Juarez in 1914. There is some uncertainty as to the manner of Benton's taking-off. He visited Villa's camp to protest in true British style against the injustices perpetrated by that scoundrel in the district in which Benton lived. He was either shot by Villa personally or was executed on his orders. When a British subject is far from home, he knows that the might of the Empire is behind him. That his person is sacrosanct. In the remote corners of the earth, with the possible exception of Bolshevik Russia, Great Britain has always visited with sure punishment the nation, tribe or individual that insults her honor by killing one of her subjects.

What a striking testimony to the long arm and honorable tradition of the motherland is the fact that during the last ten terrible years of revolution in Mexico, only one Britisher has been assassinated, William S. Benton!
During the same period six hundred American citizens lost their lives, and nothing was done about it by the Wilson administration.

Although Great Britain was at war with Germany, she did not let the murder of Benton pass by default.
She asked the American government to make a thorough investigation.
When Uncle Sam called on Carranza to enquire into the death of Benton, a British subject, he exonerated Villa. But the British government was not satisfied. Recognition of Mexico was withheld by the imperial authorities, and the foreign office has never allowed this case to rest. And now a new government is in command in Mexico, has wrong from the Mexican treasury an indemnity of $10,000 to be paid to Benton's Widow and an engagement to pay her a pension of $2.50 a day as long as she lives.

It is questionable whether this settlement will satisfy English public opinion, for the punishment of the guilty person or persons has not been insisted upon. But the widow of the murdered man will realize that good old Britain is behind her sons in the farthest parts of the world. It can also be confidently predicted day of reconciling will come for even the Russian assassins of Englishmen.

Returned Soldier Must Fend for Him- self in the Future

Ottawa, Nov. 14—Whatever federal methods are devised during the coming winter months, to cope with the unemployment situation which threatens to be acute in the urban centres they will be adopted without particular regard for the returned soldiers, apart from the care of seriously disabled men, which will be continued under the department of Soldier's Re-establishment for some time yet.

The returned soldier in future will have to fend for himself, and is looked upon as having been absorbed into the civilian class. Any means which are devised by the federal authorities to deal with the unemployment situation will have regard for the unemployed as a whole, and without distinction. The assistance provided for to help unemployed returned men over last winter expired in March last.
(for single men) and April (for married). Under the provisions of the appropriations, only about $10,000,000 were disbursed, employment having been found for the majority of needy cases within a brief period of the receipt of first financial assistance. In fact, it cannot be said that fears of abuse of the assistance were realized.
There is now no parliamentary provision for a continuation of the assistance during the coming winter, and the machinery for doing so has been pretty well scrapped.

During the past summer, it is stated, there were few cases of unemployment among the returned men. Unemployment, is now largely a provincial matter. The federal authorities however, undertake to pay half the cost of the upkeep of the provincial labor bureau, while the labor department assists in the compilation of statistics showing at what particular points and in what particular industries employment is required.

Premier Meighen, in his western trip has declared unequivocally that there will be no further cash gratuities. In the case of serious emergency condition of employment arising, the federal authorities may be compelled to take certain emergency measures to cope with it. But there will be no particular distinction made between the returned soldier and other civilians apart from such precedence as the former may in the natural course of events be given by individual employers.

France and the League

France having threatened "drastic action" if Germany were allowed to enter the League of Nations, Germany has decided that it will stay out until it is invited to enter. Making all allowance for French feeling, the refusal to associate with Germany is also an expression of French opinion as to the reliability of the League of Nations as a dispenser of justice and a preserver of the peace. France ought to be in good position to judge and its decision is that it does not intend to leave it to the international body to decide what its relations with the late enemy are to be. France intends to take care of herself so far as Germany is concerned, the League of Nations notwithstanding.
